

Future Tense

Listen to Katie talk about her plans to study in France using the future tense.

Study Abroad

Soon I will quit my job and move to Europe. I am very excited about it. I will be an exchange student for one year in France and Spain. I will live in France first for six months, and then I will move to Spain and I will live there for six months.

In both countries, I will study language at a local university. I do not know French or Spanish now, so I will likely have trouble when I first move there. Still, I will do my best!

I will live alone, and I am sure I will miss friends, but I hope I will make new friends soon. My best friend will come out and visit me around New Year. We will probably take a trip to Greece. We won't know our plans until later.

I am sure I will have some problems when I first move there. I will have a hard time buying food, and talking but I am sure I will be fine.

I will miss a lot of things about my country, and I will miss my boyfriend. He will not have time to visit me, so I won't see him until I return. I will write him every week when I am there. I think we will stay together, but I am not sure. I hope we will stay together!

I am sure my life will be different and I will change, but I hope I will change in a good way, and I hope I won't regret my decision. As we say, only time will tell!
